

MAG

MAG model TV bench. Wooden frame with two drawers and central compartment. MAG is a range of products with a sleek design and refined personality, where glass and wood are combined in perfect harmony. The two side drawers are handleless and feature a handy push-pull opening mechanism. The central compartment, designed specifically to hold the decoder or DVD player, is closed by a drop-down door and contains a tempered glass shelf and a practical rear cable outlet. The sides and doors of the wooden frame have a matching finish, and the top is made of tempered glass.

MAG is a TV bench that is perfect for a sophisticated dining/living area and contemporary surroundings.
